SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934
Release No. 97953 / July 20, 2023

Admin. Proc. File No. 3-21389

In the Matter of

BLOX, INC.

ORDER REGARDING SERVICE

On April 21, 2023, the Securities and Exchange Commission issued an order instituting proceedings (“OIP”) against Blox, Inc. (“Respondent”) pursuant to Section 12(j) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.¹ On April 28, 2023, the Division of Enforcement filed a Declaration of Sandhya Harris, which stated that, pursuant to Commission Rule of Practice 141(a)(2)(ii),² service of the OIP was made on Respondent on April 26, 2023.

Specifically, the declaration stated that the OIP was mailed to the address shown on Respondent’s most recent EDGAR filing, 117 Avenue of the Americas, 5th Floor, New York, NY 10036 (“117 Address”). The declaration identifies Respondent’s most recent filing as a Form 8-K filed with the Commission on November 9, 2021. But EDGAR reflects that Respondent made a subsequent filing on March 27, 2023, of a Form 8-K.³ This error is immaterial, however, because the address listed in the declaration, i.e., the 117 Address, is the same as the address listed on Respondent’s most recent EDGAR filing on March 27, 2023.

The declaration further stated that the “USPS tracking system confirms that [the OIP] was returned to sender on April 26, 2023 because the forwarding order for the address was no longer valid.” Nevertheless, it appears that the 117 Address may contain a typographical error. Prior filings used a similar but different address: 5th Floor, 1177 Avenue of the Americas, New York, NY 10036 (“1117 Address”). Under these circumstances, it appears that it may be appropriate to attempt delivery of the OIP to the 1117 Address.⁴

Accordingly, it is ORDERED that the Division shall file a status report concerning service of the OIP on Respondent at the 1117 Address by August 3, 2023, and every 28 days thereafter until service at that address is accomplished.

For the Commission, by the Office of the General Counsel, pursuant to delegated authority.
